- 3 Nomination Papers should be lodged by hand, email, or post to the Election Office, Kilmory Headquarters, Lochgilphead PA31 8RT. A Nomination Paper should not be delivered to any other Council office. If it is, the Returning Officer cannot guarantee that it will be received by the deadline. The Returning Officer accepts no responsibility for Nomination Papers delivered other than to Kilmory nor for any which may have been sent by post and which in both cases, may not therefore reach the Returning Officer by the closing time for nominations.
- 4 The attention of prospective candidates is drawn to the notes which are set out at the back of the Nomination Paper and to the following –
 - (i) A Nomination Paper will be rejected if it is not properly completed and signed. To be validly nominated as a candidate, a person must –
 - have attained the age of 16 years on the day of the election
 - be resident within the community council area
 - be listed on the Register of Local Government Electors for an address within the Community Council area.

- (ii) A person is disqualified from standing for election as a Community Councillor if-
 - a they are an Argyll and Bute Councillor or a member of the Scottish or UK Parliaments.
 - b They are persons whose estate has been sequestrated by a court in Scotland or who has been adjudged bankrupt elsewhere than in Scotland. (The disqualification ceases if and when the sequestration is recalled or the bankruptcy discharged or annulled).
 - c They have within five years before the day of nomination or election, or since their election been convicted in the United Kingdom of any offence and has had passed on them a sentence of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) for a period of not less than 3 months without the option of a fine.
 - (iii) The Nomination Paper should be completed giving the candidate's surname, and other names as in the Register of Electors, the candidate's address as in the Register of Electors and the Electoral Number in the Register.
 - (iv) The Nomination Paper must be signed by a proposer and seconder, both of whom must be 16 years of age on the day of the election and whose names must be included in the Register of Electors for an address within the Community Council area.
 - (v) The proposer and seconder must sign the Nomination Paper and give their address as in the Register of Electors and their Electoral Number as in the Register.
 - (vi) An elector shall not sign, as proposer or seconder, more nomination papers than there are vacancies to be filled in the Community Council.
 - (vii) Electors included in the Register of Electors, which came into force on Monday 1 August 2022, will be those who will be entitled to vote in any contested election.
 - (viii) Registers are available for inspection in local libraries and the local Council Offices. You can also phone the elections Team on 01546 603264 or the Registration office on 01586 555300 to check your own electoral numbers.
5. The final date for the withdrawal of a nomination will be 4.00 pm on Thursday 8 September 2022. Notice of Withdrawal must be given on the form provided with the Nomination Paper, signed by the candidate and witnessed and must be lodged at the same place where the Nomination Paper was lodged. The Returning Officer may accept a Notice of Withdrawal sent by post. Unless a Notice of Withdrawal is received by the closing date the candidate will stand validly nominated and will be included on the ballot paper in any contested election.

6. If the number of validly nominated candidates does not exceed the number of vacant elected Community Councillor seats on the Community Council candidates will be elected unopposed, with effect from Thursday 20 October 2022. A Notice confirming those elected unopposed will be posted as soon as possible after nominations close but not later than Thursday 15 September 2022.
7. If the number of validly nominated candidates exceeds the number of vacant elected Community Councillor seats on the Community Council a Notice of Poll will be posted not later than Thursday 15 September 2022.
8. The Poll will be conducted by postal ballot and postal ballot papers will be sent to all those included in the current Register of Local Government Electors for an address within the Community Council area. The following will be sent to electors–
 - A ballot paper containing the names of each candidate listed in alphabetical order of surname (or where two or more candidates have the same surname by alphabetical order of first forename);
 - Candidate Statements (where validly submitted);
 - A postal Voting Statement (PVS) which must be signed and dated by the voter;
 - Guidance Notes for Voting; and
 - A postage paid return envelope addressed to the Returning Officer (to hold the marked ballot paper)

Voters will return their ballot paper by posting this in the return envelope to the Returning Officer. Exceptionally, the Returning Officer may accept a ballot paper which is delivered by hand.

9. A voter must complete the ballot paper personally, by marking a (X) in the box against the names of candidates of the voter's choice up to the number of elected Community Councillor seats. For example, if there are ten elected Community Councillor seats to be filled, the voter may vote for up to (but not more than) ten candidates. If a voter spoils a ballot paper, he or she may apply to the Returning Officer for a replacement ballot paper. It will be for the voter to ensure that he or she meets the deadline for return.
10. The closing day for receipt of returned postal ballot papers (or, exceptionally, those delivered by hand) will be 4.00 pm on Thursday 20 October 2022. The votes on any ballot paper returned after that time will not be counted. The Returning Officer will count the votes validly cast as soon as practicable after the closing time. The results of any election will be posted within the relevant Community Council area as soon as possible after the votes have been counted.
11. The Counting of Votes will take place at Argyll and Bute Council Headquarters, Kilmory, Lochgilphead on Tuesday 25 October 2022. Due to ongoing restrictions it may not be possible for candidates to attend the count in person on this occasion but candidates are asked to contact the Returning Officer not later than two days before election day should they, or a person representing them, wish to attend, so that they may be advised on the most up to date guidance.
12. In any poll those candidates who receive the highest number of votes cast will be elected up to the number of seats to be filled.

13. Candidate Statements

In order to make themselves known to electors, candidates may submit an election statement in support of their nomination which, in the event of a contested election, will be posted on the Argyll and Bute Council website. The postal ballot pack issued to electors will draw attention to these statements.

Statements must be typed or hand written and must not exceed 100 words in length. Statements which exceed this length will not be accepted. Statements must be suitable for publication. The Returning Officer retains the right to refuse to publish all or any part of any statement containing material which she considers to be unacceptable, particularly which might be considered to be obscene, offensive or defamatory. The contents of statements will not otherwise be edited.

The statement should be submitted at the same time as the nomination form, but may be submitted to the Returning Officer at a later date, up to the deadline for submission of nomination forms (4pm on Thursday 8 September 2022). Statements will not be accepted after that date.
