

RULES FOR FORWARDING PARCELS

---

We offer our services within the European Union, more specifically:

- Poland,
- Germany,
- Netherlands,
- Belgium,
- France,
- Denmark,
- Luxemburg

In a situation where you want to send a package, the courier is the best solution. On average such the service costs several dozen euros, but the parcel can be delivered even within a day.

How much you pay for it depends mainly on the dimensions of the package.

You can ship many different items with standard courier, with a few exceptions. In line with applicable regulations, the cargo may not include, inter alia:

- tobacco products,
- alcohol,
- narcotic drugs,
- prescription drugs,
- live animals,
- explosive and flammable materials.

Each courier actually has its own list, so it is good to read it before sending a parcel to the Netherlands and other European Union countries where we provide our services. To be sure that the parcel you forwarded reaches the designated place without any problems, do not forget to pack and label it correctly.

Secure the package carefully both from the inside and from the outside as well put on it the bill of lading, which is the basis for the execution of the order.
