

Real life superheroes

Can you identify these everyday superheroes?

I work in a hospital. I help poorly or injured people to get better.

I care for someone who needs help with everyday activities, such as washing, getting dressed and eating.

I work in a laboratory. I carry out experiments to try to make life better for everyone.

I try to stop fire spreading. I rescue trapped people and animals.

I treat poorly and injured animals. I make them feel better.

Can you identify these everyday superheroes?

Doctor

Carer

Firefighter

Vet

Scientist

Can you think of anymore?

You have learned all about real life superheroes. These people are called real life superheroes because their jobs help many people in our community.

Think about the jobs you have learned about. What did the role involve? How did they help people? What qualities are needed to do this job?

Activity:

On plain paper or the writing template, identify what job you would most like to do that would make you an everyday superhero. Explain why you have chosen this job.

Challenge: extend your writing:

- What would you have to do if you had this job?
- How would you help people by doing this job?
- What qualities do you need to do this job?

Remember to use capital letters, full stops and finger spaces. Try your best to sound out unfamiliar words.