Our History

The term Laguiole refers to a provenance and a style of knife. They have their origin in the village of Laguiole in France, located in the Aubrac, on a high plateau of volcanic and granitic rock, wild and proud, where the formidable history of these knives was born. The style is that of an original farmer's knife, with curved lines, the bee and the guilloche pattern on the spring. The international recognition has resulted in many misleading imitations from all over the world. As a regional knife, the authentic Laguiole is not only inspired by the style Laguiole, but it has to be handmade in the village of Laguiole.

1828 The first cutler Casimir-Antoine MOULIN settled in Laguiole to execute his profession and living thanks to that. This was the first step for the profession as a cutler.

1850 The straight Laguiole gradually evolved and by the 1860s, the current shape of the Laguiole knife appeared and became gradually refined.

1880 The 3-piece knife appeared, made of a blade, a corkscrew and an awl. The corkscrew is linked to the demand from the Aveyronnais, who set off to conquer the Parisian cafés. As for the awl, it was used in the agriculture sector, mainly to pierce the bellies of animals and save them from death.

1909 The first bee appeared on Laguiole knives. A legend says, that its presence on the knives was a tribute paid to the courage of the people of Laguiole by the emperor Napoleon himself. The bee also represents the polenisation essential to the pastoral life of the Aubrac plateau.

1914 The First World War (1914-1918) meant the disappearance of a part of the cutleries in Laguiole at this time. Only three craftsmen were producing very small quantity of Laguiole knives in the village.

1987 A team from the Aubrac plateau, including the mayor of Laguiole, organised the relaunch of the manufacturing of the Laguiole knife in its birthplace. This led to the creation of the FORGE DE LAGUIOLE, which made this dream a reality in 1987.

Our manufactory

The design of our manufactory was entrusted to Phillipe Starck, it perfectly reflects the company's philosophy of combining creativity and tradition. The 18-metre-high blade and the glass and aluminium architecture symbolise the company's activity and dynamism.

Our territory

Our Forge de Laguiole® manufactory is located on a plateau at a height of 1100 meters in the core of the village of Laguiole. Its landscape impresses by its fantastic beauty and its singular tranquillity. The village of Laguiole and its special energy, inspires our cutlers day after day.

Size guide

Folding knives

When we mention the size of our knives, we refer to the length of the knife handle, when it is closed. The handles of our Forge de Laguiole knives are available in several sizes : 7, 9, 11 and 12 cm lengths.

Our advice on choosing the ideal knife size:

12cm length models : Perfect for an everyday use, which is generally the size we recommend for men.

11cm length models : Also perfect for an everyday use, with a grip suitable for a lady or a teenager.

9cm length models : Designed to be easy to carry, so you can bring them into a bag or take them for picnics. It's a good compromise between ease of storage and efficiency of use. This size may also be suitable when buying a first knife for a child or teenager.

7cm models : These much more discreet knives are perfect as a gift idea to take with you as a reminder of Forge de Laguiole.

Of course, this advice is for guidance only, and can be adapted on a case-by-case basis.

Table knives

Our table knives from the Tradition range all have a 12cm length handle. The total length of the knife is nearly 23cm.

Maintenance guide
Folding knives

BLADE

Our folding knives have a stop, which prevents the blade from pressing into the spring when the knife is closed. We recommend not to let the blade snap shut when closing it to avoid blunting the edge with an abrut closure. We recommend to clean the blade with a soft cloth or a bit wet sponge and then wipe it immediately with a dry cloth.

HANDLE

A Laguiole knife should not be washed, it must be wiped. The natural materials of the handle, like precious woods or horn, are sensitive to humidity. It is therefore preferable to keep your knife in a dry place. A wooden knife can get a slight patina over time. To protect it and keep its beautiful appearance, you can apply a little linseed or camellia oil to nourish the wood.

MECHANISM

To maintain the mechanism of your folding knife, it is necessary to add a drop of oil to the joint between the blade and the spring from time to time. Over the years, this will ensure that your Forge de Laguiole knife opens and closes easily and prevent it from becoming damaged.

SHARPENING

For a regular sharpening in order to preserve the optimal quality of the edge of your blade, we advise you to sharpen it on a natural stone. Moisten the stone for about ten minutes before sharpening by keeping a sharpening angle of 20°. Be sure to sharpen your knife regularly to keep its edge.

You can find all our maintenance tips online.

The natural materials of the handle, such as precious woods or horn, are sensitive to humidity. It is therefore preferable to keep your knife in a dry place. For storage, we recommend a box or a knife case instead of a drawer.

CLEANING

At Forge de Laguiole we have produced waterproof knives for easy maintenance. They are symbolised by the following icon : You can put them in contact with water, which makes the daily use easier. However, we do not recommend to put the knives in the dishwasher, to preserve the beauty and the longevity. The detergents used can cause premature damage to the handles. We recommend washing them by hand with a mild soap and drying them immediately after washing.

MECHANISM

To maintain the mechanism of your Sommelier, it is necessary to add a drop of oil from time to time When using the Sommelier, the screw must be placed vertically in the center of the cork. The corkscrew must be kept straight, in the continuity of the neck of the bottle.

Forge de Laguiole folding knives are a true reference in quality.

BEE & SPRING

In all our ranges, Tradition, Edition and Collection, the bee and the spring are forged* from a single piece. In the Tradition range, the guillochage is done mechanically under a press. The bee and the spring in the Edition and Collection range are chiseled by hand. All our 9, 11 and 12cm folding knives have a forged spring and a hot-forged blade made in our manufactory.

BLADE

The blades are hot-forged at almost 1000° in our manufactory from a French steel: the T14. This steel is the result of a clever combination of carbon and chromium, and ensures exceptional sharpness, excellent durability of the cut and remarkable ease of sharpening, while ensuring the blade remains unaltered.

BOLSTERS

All our knives in the Tradition range have bolsters. They can be made from brass or stainless steel, and they protect the handle for a daily use. Stainless steel bolsters are massive and are hot-forged in our manufactory. They can have a shiny or a satin finish. Brass bolsters are always shiny.

*Unless otherwise specified or old models.

Each Forge de Laguiole knife is the result of the meticulous work of ours cutlers, who perpetuate a know-how handed down from generation to generation.

From the design to the finishing, the manufacturing steps of an original Forge de Laguiole® folding knife take place in our manufactory in Laguiole.

An original Forge de Laguiole® knife is the result of the combination of extraordinary materials of exceptional quality. The blades are hot-forged at almost 1000° in our manufactory from a French steel: the T14. The handles are carefully crafted from noble and natural materials such as wood or horn thanks to a miticulous selection

The making of the original Forge de Laguiole® knife is framed by strict guidelines. We combine the know-how of our Master-cutlers, with the precision of a goldsmith – from the assembly to the polishing, and from the hand chiseling to the sharpening.

The expertise of Forge de Laguiole is officially recognised through the award of the Geographical Indication "Couteau de Laguiole". This distinction ensures that each knife is meticulously crafted within a strictly defined geo graphical area, in full compliance with exacting specifications. It is a true source of pride for Forge de Laguiole, which has steadfastly maintained the production of its traditional folding knives in Laguiole since its founding. When the Geographical Indication logo appears below, it signifies that the knife is IG-certified, a mark of authenticity, origin, and uncompromising excellence

LAGUIOLE FROM HERE

Forge de Laguiole is proud to present this knife, the result of an ancestral know-how deeply rooted in the village of Laguiole and now officially recognized by the Geographical Indication “Couteau de Laguiole”. This certification guarantees that the knife has been crafted in compliance with strict specifications, within a defined geographical area, and in full respect of tradition. At Forge de Laguiole, each knife is entirely handcrafted by our skilled cutlers, from the hot forging of the blade to the final finishing of the handle, all exclusively carried out in our workshop. This exceptional model perfectly embodies that commitment. Its 12 cm handle is crafted from subfossil oak over 5,000 years old, recovered from the former bed of the Rhine. This rare and noble wood, shaped by time, has been carefully selected and enhanced as a tribute to History. The blade, hot-forged from French steel, offers outstanding cutting performance, reflecting the high standards of excellence upheld by Forge de Laguiole. Faithful to the rural origins of this iconic knife, the traditional shepherd’s cross has been replaced by an ancient diamond-shaped motif, recalling the old peasant Laguiole knives, where it once symbolized the rosary. Above the blade, the finely chiselled Saint Andrew’s Cross revives a historic pattern once found on Laguiole knives. Symbol of protection, it pays tribute to Andrew, one of the first abbots of Aubrac, whose coat of arms featured two crossed pilgrim staffs.

FOLDING

Modern and innovative knives re-interpreted by renowned designers.

Our Forge de Laguiole folding knives from the Signature range have been created in collaboration with artists, designers and chefs.

STARCK

STARCK	279,00 €
11cm - Aluminum	00004446

Our iconic model ! This model was the first Laguiole knife to be created by a world-renowned designer. Philippe Starck has refined its lines to reveal its essence: perfect proportions and fluidity of movement. Combining tradition and modernity, he has transformed this utilitarian object into an aesthetic statement. A visionary Laguiole, faithful to its heritage and open to the future. Numbered series.

BRAS

BRAS - SOULAGES	178,00 €
12cm - Black vegetal fibre	00004086

A knife "as simple as a brushstroke," inspired by the table knife created for the Café Bras, close to the Soulages Museum. Its clean lines pay tribute to the painter and to his art of light and matter. Set with a ferrule, as a brush might be, this creation reflects the link between design and painting. A poetic knife, both discreet and deeply symbolic.

AIRBUS

AIRBUS	240,00 €
11cm - Carbon fiber from Airbus A350 and white acrylic	00003666

Born from a collaboration between Forge de Laguiole and Airbus, this folding knife pays tribute to French aeronautical excellence. Every detail echoes the aircraft: the cockpit replaces the bee, the tab echoes the front view of the A350XWB, and the handle incorporates carbon fiber from the airplane. Inspired by airlines, it combines innovation and cutlery tradition. Numbered and accompanied by its certificate of authenticity, it becomes a unique model, a symbol of modernity and technical mastery.

RAFFY		244,00 € 20,00 €
11 cm - Dark horn	00004440	-
Custom-made leather case	-	00000571

When Forge de Laguiole meets Éric Raffy's refined vision, it results an object where tradition and contemporary style blend together elegantly. With its understated design, black horn handle, and high polished finish, every feature exudes confident simplicity. This Forge de Laguiole knife by Eric Raffy is a tribute to craftsmanship, a companion that enhances everyday moments. Its genuine leather case is sold separately.

ROUTARD	174,00 €
11cm - Snakewood Delivred with leather case	00004441

When the call of travel meets the centuries-old tradition of Laguiole, the Routard knife is born. As a symbol of freedom, it revisits the codes: the bee becomes a world map and the shepherd's cross a path to the world. Forged here in Aubrac, it embodies the alliance between adventure and French craftsmanship. Delivered with its chocolate leather case, it slips into your pocket like a promise of distant horizons.

Christian Ghion

GHION	76,00 €
Flat 9cm - Triple plates MATT FINISH	00003646

Christian Ghion brings the cutler's craft back to basics: with no superfluous decorative handle, only the plates fit the palm of the hand, and the satin-finished yatagan blade asserts itself in simplicity. Hot-forged on the Aubrac plateau, this model embodies the meeting of bold design and avant-garde craftsmanship. Compact, lightweight, and almost flat, it slips into your pocket like a discreet yet powerful style statement.

SEIZE HAPPY WALLMAKER	179,00 €
11cm - Sublimated Acrylic
ANTARES	00003686
VEGA	00003688
ALTAÏR	00003685
SIRIUS	00003687

A self-taught urban artist, Seize transposes his abstract and colorful universe onto the handle of the Laguiole knife. Inspired by constellations, he has created a capsule collection based on the stars Altair, Sirius, Vega, and Antares. Each knife becomes a miniature work of wall art, where the energy of street art meets the expertise of knife-making. Forge de Laguiole thus offers a celestial piece, both an everyday object and a true work of art to slip into your pocket.

Unique knives with incomparable style

The knives from the Forge de Laguiole Signature range reflect the creativity of designers, artists and chefs resulting in remarkable collaborations that have become part of the history of Forge de Laguiole.

STARCK

STARCK - LOG

Created by Philippe Starck for Forge de Laguiole, the LOG model explores an essential vision of the table knife. Its monobloc stainless steel construction evokes the natural shape of a log, with a subtle texture, offering a fluid and intuitive grip. A sleek, contemporary design conceived to accompany the table with precision and harmony.

Set of 6 — 00004644 — 426,00 €

STARCK STAINLESS STEEL

Created to celebrate the bond between Forge de Laguiole and Philippe Starck, this table knife made from stainless steel features a line of absolute clarity. Its mirror finish captures the light and enhances the precision of the blade. An essential object, where design becomes self-evident.

Set of 6 — 00004668 — 738,00 €

STARCK - DARK HORN

Designed by Philippe Starck for Forge de Laguiole, this table knife combines the rigor of contemporary design with the nobility of dark horn. Each handle, unique in its natural variations, brings warmth and depth to the model's clean and refined line. A subtle balance between heritage and modernity, conceived for an elegant and timeless table.

Set of 6 — 00004666 — 738,00 €

STARCK - LIGHT HORN

Imagined by Philippe Starck for Forge de Laguiole, this table knife highlights the natural softness of light horn. Its delicate nuances, unique to each piece, contrast with the purity of the line and bring a sense of lightness to the overall design. A refined object, where the material elevates the everyday gesture.

Set of 6 — 00004664 — 738,00 €

PUTMAN - ASH WOOD

Andrée Putman always sought to transform everyday life into elegance. For this densified ash wood knife, she envisioned an object both simple and iconic: a handle that fits the hand, water-resistant, paired with a satin-finished blade whose precision reflects her attention to detail. Every gesture then becomes an experience, where the timelessness of the design meets the natural warmth of the wood, bringing a discreet yet profoundly memorable touch of refinement to the table.
