

*this update: 22 Sept 2020, subject to updating in January 2021All lectures are obligatory.

we ek	Date	Lecture topic	room BMC	Teacher	What to read in Day's book or otherwise do before the lecture
6	9 Feb	Introduction to IMRAD The CARS model: an essential linguistic tool.		Terese Bergfors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Read chapters 10, 12, 13 (Introduction, Results, Discussion)
7	16 Feb	What makes a text easy to read: the three most important things		Terese Bergfors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Read the pdf Time to make it shorter (included in the appendix of the compendium) before doing the homework. appendix 2 in Day's book Give feedback forms to your group members
8	23 Feb	English: the main language problems. Feedback on your text1_original		Christer Geisler	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Read chapters 30, 31, 32, chapters 33, 34
9	2 Mar	Titles Abstracts Hedgewords Shorter is better		Terese Bergfors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> verb_tense.pdf (included in the compendium appendix) chapter 7 (titles) chapter 9 (abstracts) Rewrite your text1_original = text1_revision1 and upload it by xxxxx
10	9 Mar	Tutorial #1-8 Tuesday	not needed	Terese Bergfors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tutorials on your revised text1_version1. Rewrite it and upload it as text1_revision2 before xxxx
10	10 Mar	Tutorial #9-16 Wednesday	not needed		<ul style="list-style-type: none">
11	23 Mar	Go through previous homework Topic sentences: why every paragraph needs one How to write the discussion		Terese Bergfors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contest results: shorter is better Review the homework on titles, abstracts, hedgewords. Read chapter 13.
12		no class this week			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> time for writing
13	30 Mar	Materials & Methods The editorial/referee process.		Terese Bergfors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> chapter 11 (Materials & Methods) chapters 19-22 (Publishing) Read the compendium p. 49-52

Easter is 2-5 April 2021